Dear Parents and Carers

As we come to the end of another challenging half term, I would like to thank you all for your support with the current situation. A number of you are working exceptionally hard at home to support your sons and daughters while having many other commitments and the quality of work coming back to us is wonderful.

I would also like to thank our amazing staff, who have been working hard to deliver on-line and face to face learning as well as to deliver packs of resources and learning to homes. We have also had staff working to clear the sites ready for numerous improvements and you saw the result of the library last week. This week, I am sharing a picture of the start of the primary quad work:

I am sure many of you will remember the overgrown, inaccessible space. It is now ready to have a ramp, learning zones (including a music area and sensory area) a water feature and a covered outdoor classroom fitted.

Thank you for your continuing feedback on Class Dojo. We have had requests to clear the 'To Do' list, so it does not look so overwhelming. We have worked out a way of doing this without deleting work that has been submitted, so these lists will now be cleared once a week and you will find it a lot easier to identify recent posts from the old ones.

In addition to the Head Teacher Awards coming out this week, we have identified a primary student and a secondary student for a 'Captain Sir Tom Award'. This recognises the perseverance and positivity Captain Sir Tom showed and celebrates these qualities in our students. It has been extremely difficult to identify the winners of these awards as we have so many worthy students. This week we have awarded them to Jacob from Orange Class on primary for always giving everything his best efforts and always doing it with a smile, and to Jardell from Bronze on secondary for being brave and getting on his bike when he was really nervous about it for weeks. Now no one can catch him!

I hope you have a really good half term and a well deserved break.

With all good wishes
